Personal Emergency Response

- Food

Keep one week worth of groceries on hand at all times, along with food for emergencies (granola bars, etc.)

Keep at least a 3-day supply of emergency water (one gallon per person per day).

- Transportation

Keep your car's gas tank at least half full at all times.

- Money

Have enough money available to get to your parent's home (if that is where you would go in case of an emergency).

- Communication

Have your cell phone programmed to call family and other important people in your life. Program an ICE (In Case of Emergency) number in your cell phone directory.

Designate an out of area family member as a family communication contact.

Keep your roommates/spouse apprised of your whereabouts.

Know about emergency info sources, including KSL AM1160 and FM 102.7 and KBYU FM 89.1 and 89.5. Remember that your car radio is a source for emergency info.

- Other Emergency Items

Designate a place for meeting your roommates, or your spouse and children (right outside your home for emergencies such as fires, and outside your neighborhood if you can't get home).

Be aware of your ward's emergency response plan, especially the ward emergency locations.

Identify primary and alternate escape routes out of your home and conduct drills with your family/roommates.

Keep all needed medications readily available (one-week supply).

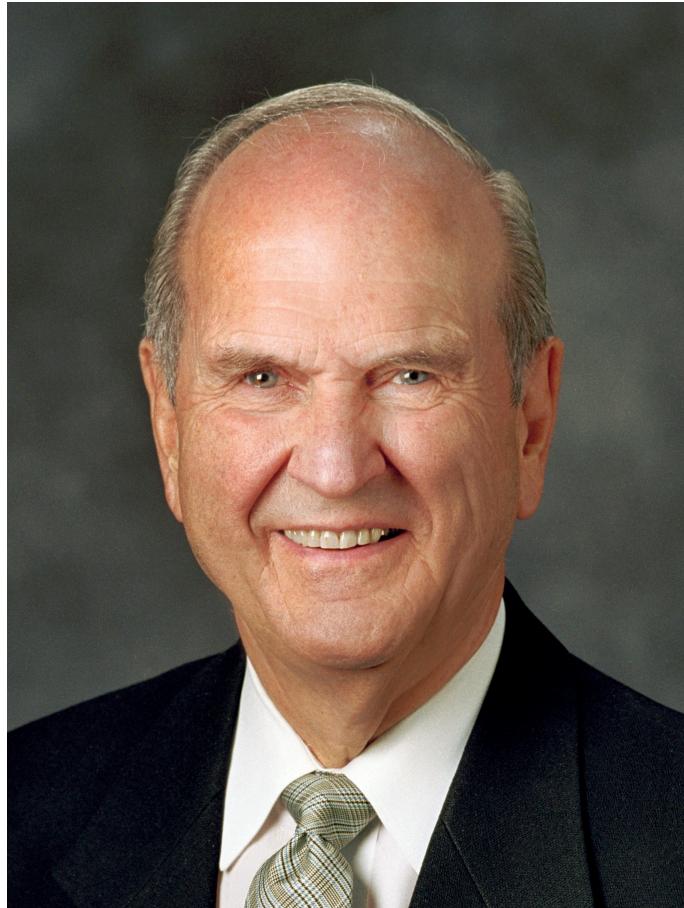

Have items available for warmth in cold weather (coats, blankets, etc)

Keep insurance policies (policy # and contact information) available, along with any other important documents, such as birth certificates and marriage licenses.

Learn what to do for the different hazards that could impact you or your family.

Go to <http://risk.byu.edu/emergency> for more information

The Provo YSA 32nd Ward emergency meeting place is the space in between the Thomas L. Martin Building (MARB) and Life Science Building (LSB).

“Nothing is more liberating, more ennobling, or more crucial to our individual progression than is a regular, daily focus on repentance. Repentance is not an event; it is a process. It is the key to happiness and peace of mind. When coupled with faith, repentance opens our access to the power of the Atonement of Jesus Christ.

Whether you are diligently moving along the covenant path, have slipped or stepped from the covenant path, or can’t even see the path from where you are now, I plead with you to repent. Experience the strengthening power of daily repentance — of doing and being a little better each day.

When we choose to repent, we choose to change! We allow the Savior to transform us into the best version of ourselves. We choose to grow spiritually and receive joy — the joy of redemption in Him. When we choose to repent, we choose to become more like Jesus Christ!”

— President Russell M. Nelson (We Can Do Better and Be Better)
